

A Good Memory

Example 1

Last August, I visited my sister Laura on her birthday. She was turning 30 years old, so we planned a special day. It was hot and the sun was shining, so her boyfriend took us fishing on his boat. Laura loves seafood, so we barbecued fish and cooked her favorite food: lobster. After dinner, we stayed up late at night talking and listening to music in her garden. I only see my sister once a year, so I was really happy to be with her on her birthday.
