

Our own story

One day    Next    Then    After that    Finally

1 Thinking & planning

• Work with a partner.

- Choose one picture.
- Think of a story based on what you can see in the picture.
- How does your story start? : When? ... Where? ... Why? ... Who? ...
- Make some notes. You don't have to think about all of the story. Just think about how the story starts!

Notes:

---

2 Speaking

- Your teacher will put you and your partner into a group.
- Tell the other students in your group how your story starts. Answer any questions they ask you.

3 Listening

- The other students in your group will tell you how their story starts. Listen carefully, and ask questions if you would like more information.

4 Thinking & planning

- Work with your partner.
- Think about the story you just heard. How does it continue? When? ... Where? ... Why? ... Who? ...
- Make some notes.

Notes:

5 Speaking

- Get back into the same group.
- Tell the other students in your group how their story continues. Answer any questions they ask you.

6 Listening

- The other students in your group will tell you how your story continues. Listen carefully, and ask questions if you would like more information.

Our own story

Choose one of these pictures.

Our own story: Teacher's Notes

In stage 2, put 2 pairs of students together, to make a group of 4.

Make sure the pairs have chosen a different picture!
